DATE : 22nd January, 2007

P.C.:

1. The impugned order warrants no interference on the limited ground. A review application was filed on the basis that the order against which review was sought proceeded on the basis of a typographical error in the Petitioner's application. According to the Petitioner, it is through the typographical error that she mentioned that her income was Rs 10,000/- per month and that, in fact, she has no income at all.

2. It is necessary for the Petitioner, in the first instance, to make an application/file an affidavit correcting the error. Petitioner is at liberty to do so and thereafter file a fresh application for review.

3. Writ Petition is accordingly disposed of.
